MEET THE LEARNING GUIDES...

Gerard van den Berg

Gerard has been enjoying outdoor life as long as he can remember, having a special interest in how indigenous still survive, travel and live in remote wilderness areas. He studied Physical Education, with specialty of Physical Education for criminal youth and earned my teachers degree. During his study time he followed courses in adventure pursuits, wilderness survival skills and bushcraft. He is a certified Wilderness Guide (Level III Arctic WGA, Level II Desert, Level II Boreal Forest), with professional qualifications in Spain (Mountain guide, Climbing instructor); and a certified International Mountain leader (UIMLA). Gerard's special sense of seeing people and supporting in the personal development gives a magic value to his teachings.

Josetxu Estebanez (UIAGM Mountain Guide/ WGA Level III)

Originally from Cantabria, his work and expeditions allows him to travel around the globe. When he can he dives, paraglides, skydives, kayaks, rafts, climbs, ski's, climb icefalls, mountain bike with his dear friends. He has been working as a Professional mountain rescuer for 28 years in Spain and served as a Rescue swimmer on a patrol boat. As a UIAGM guide he has led clients around the world on alpine and mountaineering expeditions. His professionalism, eye for details and love for people and nature makes him a true star.

Jose Manuel Naranjo (Polar Guide)

As a polar expeditionary person, José Naranjo has a long and awarded experience. He has won the Spanish Geographic Society Award. Lots of expeditions carried out by him from the TransGreenland 2001 an expedition that crossed Greenland from the south to the north in total autonomy with a sled hauled by giant kites, TransBaltic 2003 expedition, Penny Icecap 2009 and crossing of the route North Pole Geographical to Canada after having skied for 40 days in a row on the frozen Arctic Ocean. What we most admire in him are his personal skills, down to earth, his passion for sharing and motivation.

WE ARE

Creating experiences of Being and learning in nature

We believe all life on earth is connected. We are one. . . we are nature.

We are co-creating a world in which all beings are connected to everyone and everything.

We do this by creating experiences of being and learning in nature and inspiring to lead and live from that wisdom.

The experience of our guides and experts allow us to explore to the edge within a caring and empowering environment and the best safety standards framework.

After fifteen years learning, growing and evolving EWES has transformed into an intentional community of purpose driven, committed, passionate individuals who thrive in the knowledge, a continuous pursuit for genuine growth and evolution targeting health, awareness, and most of all joy for life.

Dare to join us on that wonderful journey. . .
